Schoolchildren hit the right note for big song event at Arena

Thousands of children packed out the LG arena, for the Young Voices concert

Youngsters from across the Black Country were joined by singing sensation Connie Talbot for the first of the region's annual Young Voices concerts.

More than 8,500 youngsters from 160 schools, aged between seven and 10 are taking part in the shows at Birmingham's LG Arena. The first of the three was held last night.

Dudley schools involved in the shows include Glynne Primary School, Kingswinford; Milkingbank Primary School, Dudley; Russells Hall Primary School, Dudley; Newfield Park Primary school, Halesowen; Lutley Mill Primary School, Stourbridge.

Streetly schoolgirl Connie Talbot, 11, who made her name on the ITV show Britain's Got Talent, sang her new song Beautiful World at the event. Pupils Amy Preece and Emily Dunn-Bartlett both aged 10, from Glynne Primary School, Cot Lane, Kingswinford said they had a fantastic day at the LG Arena, and had enjoyed rehearsing for it at school.

Amy said: "We had our rehearsals at the after school club, and had extra ones as it came closer to the show."

Favourite

Emily added: "Our favourite songs are the pop medley and the Queen medley, and we love doing the actions."

The second and third performances at the arena take place tonight and on Thursday.

The show was moved to Monday night, due to the public sector strike action. This is the 15th year of the Young Voices concerts which raises funds for children's cancer charity CLIC Sargent.

POLICE OPEN UP TOWN COP SHOP

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

Police in Halesowen have opened up their very own "cop shop" to offer crime prevention advice to shoppers in the town centre. Throughout December officers will be on hand to talk to residents from a vacant shop in the Queensway.

They will be offering tips on how people can keep their personal belongings, home and vehicle safe in the run-up to Christmas, when there is often a rise in crime. Halesowen Sector Inspector Mick Palmer has come up with the new way of offering winter advice.

He said: "This should prove to be a successful way of engaging with the local community and businesses within Halesowen."

"The shop will be run by officers and police community support officers to interact with the community and offer crime prevention tips to locals."

Handbags

"We will be reminding people to keep their handbags close to them, as we do see a rise in pickpockets at this time of year and will also be offering a property marking service, where we will be happy to securely UV mark your new Christmas goods."

Officers will be joined by representatives from other partner agencies such as Trading Standards, Age Concern, Living Well Feeling Safe and West Midlands Fire Service over the month of December.

Insp Palmer added: "We welcome anyone to pop down and meet the team. We are here to listen to your concerns and help assist you in anyway we can."

This new initiative forms part of the force wide operation Serve & Protect launched in April in a move to crack down on robbery and crime.

The campaign aims to put the right number of officers in the right places and tackle the issues which matter to local people.

Anyone who cannot make it down to the shop but has a question they would like to raise with the local neighbourhood team, can visit the website www.dudleypolice.org.uk for more details.

Star pair share accolade for the first time

Leanne Ditchfield and Jodie Rock with their award from Startime Variety

Two long-serving members of a Black Country performing society have been honoured for their tireless work on stage and behind the scenes.

Halesowen's Startime Variety presents the accolade to the person members think has contributed most to the society over the past 12 months. And for the first time ever it has been awarded to two people - 27-year-old Jodie Rock and Leanne Ditchfield, 26.

As well as performing in the society's shows both Jodie and Leanne have taken an active role behind the scenes over the years.

Jodie, a member of Startime Variety for 16 years, produced this year's successful summer show, called Startime Goes Pop, for the group. She also makes props for the shows and helps to paint the scenery.

And Leanne, a member for 10 years, has produced programmes for the group's performances for the last five years and helps prepare the costumes.

Jodie, a sales consultant from Halesowen, said: "I am really pleased to have received the award." Leanne, a librarian from Rowley Regis, added: "It is really nice to be recognised in this way by Startime."

Fraudster had secret cash stash

A father of two with £57,000 salted away in secret bank accounts has been locked up for pocketing more than £15,000 in a benefits scam. Balbir Rai concealed the cash from the Department for Work and Pensions, a court heard.

He spread it among nine different bank accounts, Wolverhampton Crown Court was told. The 36-year-old, of Coseley, told officials he had no savings to enable him to claim job seekers allowance. He continued to collect the benefit payments for almost two years before investigators found him out.

It was during this time the deposits in his secret accounts soared from almost £18,000 to £57,000.

Prosecutor Miss Laura Hobson said: "He claimed to have neither savings nor capital when making his written application for job seeker's allowance in June 2008, despite having nine bank accounts with £17,753 in them, a figure that increased steadily."

"It had risen to £28,000 the following month and by October 2009 the total was £57,000. As a result of his actions he was over paid £15,293 to which he had no entitlement."

Questions

"When these matters came to light he was reluctant to discuss his bank accounts, claiming not to understand the questions that he was being asked."

"When the evidence was put before him he expressed dismay that investigators had been able to access this information without his consent."

Rai, from Vicarage Road, claimed the money was financial support from an "uncle".

Mr Scott Coughtrie, defending, told the court on Monday: "He was desperate and going through a difficult time after separating from his wife. He had no money and no job and felt he was in dire circumstances."

Rai, who was of previous good character, admitting dishonestly making a false statement between June 30, 2008, and May 21, 2010.

Recorder William Edis QC jailed him for eight weeks and told him: "Many ordinary honest taxpayers would give their right arm to have savings of £57,000 in the bank but they do not go out and steal other people's money."

"You were by no means on your uppers when you made this claim and still kept claiming while you prospered."

Girlfriend is flung out of car

A motorist who was more than twice the drink drive limit crashed his car, causing his girlfriend to be thrown out of the vehicle, Dudley Magistrates Court was told. The vehicle ended up on its roof.

Todd Harris had been drinking before losing control of his mother's Renault Laguna in Hagley Road, Halesowen. Harris, aged 22, needed to be cut out of the vehicle by fire crews.

He was not seriously injured but his girlfriend needed treatment from paramedics at the scene.

Police arrested Harris and a breath test gave a reading of 96mg of alcohol in 100ml of breath. The limit is 35mg.

Harris, of Crabbe Street, Stourbridge, was disqualified from driving for 23 months and handed a community order including 40 hours of unpaid work.

The court heard Harris told police he did not remember the collision, which happened at 2.20am.

Mr Michael Doyle, defending, said Harris had left his house following a row between his mother and her partner the evening before the crash happened.

He went for a few drinks, which had included a pint of cider and some Jack Daniels whiskey, with his girlfriend before driving home.

"He thought wrongly that he was OK to drive," Mr Doyle said.

Harris was ordered at the hearing to pay £80 costs. He had pleaded guilty at an earlier hearing to driving with excess alcohol.

Choral concert

Halesowen Choral Society will present Handel's Messiah for its latest concert next week at St Paul's Church, Long Lane, Blackheath. The show starts at 7.30pm on Saturday December 10 and tickets are £8, including refreshments. Tickets can be bought from choir members, by emailing tickets@halesowenchoralsociety.org or by calling 0121 550 7206.

Residents called to foot bill on bin thefts

Dudley people are being asked to foot the bill after a spate of thefts of garden waste wheellie bins. New figures show thieves stole 349 of the green plastic bins from outside people's homes in the borough in one year.

Residents who fall victim are asked to pay £25 if they want the bin replaced. However, the council says there is discretion to waive the charge if a householder can prove they have taken good care to prevent damage or theft of their bins.

Councillor David Stanley, said many of the bins were taken by youths, who used them to build bonfires to keep warm while they drank beer.

He added the thefts escalated during the autumn and winter and that the north of the borough – Gornal, Sedgley and Coseley – was hit the most.

Tony and Hazel Timmins, both aged 64, of Tiled House Lane, Pensnett, were staggered after their green recycling bin was stolen from the edge of their drive – and the council then demanded £25 for a replacement.

Assessed

"The bin was full of privet as well, so we couldn't understand why anyone would want to steal it, particularly as it has our house number in big letters on it," he said. Mr Timmins, a retired bus driver. The council says that since September, 11 residents have paid for the replacement of stolen bins.

Councillor Stanley said he added there had been cases of residents fraudulently requesting a replacement, claiming it was stolen. Dudley police said they were not aware of a problem with stolen wheellie bins.

Morris, 36, is serving a 10-year jail term after pleading guilty to 36 burglaries.

Myster-tree over drawings

Mysterious drawings stuffed into empty mustard oil bottles have been found in a Black Country park in a bizarre series of events over recent weeks, residents claim.

Neighbours of Netherton Park in Dudley say the bottles of oil are being emptied over the trees, leaving stains, and left upside down at the base with the drawings rolled up inside in what has been suggested is some kind of mystic ritual.

Police confirmed they had received reports of the strange incidents. Resident Gordon Smith, of Greaves Road near the park, said he was baffled. "This has been going on for several months," he said.

"There is usually a rolled up diagram, that depicts a human figure together with various signs and symbols, either inside the bottles or placed near to the bottles at the bases of the trees."

"The behaviour, that takes place either late at night or in the early morning, is leaving ugly stains on the trees and, as yet, no-one knows what the effect of the oil could have on the health of the trees. We are also worried the glass bottles could be broken on the paths."

"It has been suggested by various people who have done some research that it is an old superstition connected with Indian ancestry, perhaps connected to 'healing magic' for someone with a heart complaint, but we don't know for sure."

Sgt Jensen Bloomer, from the Netherton, Woodside and St Andrews neighbourhood policing team, said officers were aware of the situation and were investigating.

"Regular patrols are being carried out in the park area," he said.

Countess of Dudley dies, 78

The Countess of Dudley, better known to film fans as actress Maureen Swanson, has died aged 78.

Countess of Dudley in 1996

Lady Dudley married William Ward, then Viscount Ednam and later the fourth Earl of Dudley, in August 1961.

Maureen Swanson was born in Glasgow on November 25 1932 and developed a passion for dance, particularly ballet, from a young age.

She won a place at the Sadler's Wells Ballet School. She was later selected to perform with the Sadler's Wells Theatre Ballet Company.

It was while with the company she was spotted by a talent scout in a production at the Theatre Royal, in Drury Lane.

During the 1950s she became a familiar face to cinemagoers appearing in films such as Moulin Rouge, Knights of the Round Table and A Town Like Alice for the Rank Organisation. She gave up her screen career after marrying Viscount Ednam in 1961, just days after his divorce from his first wife was finalised. The couple's first son was born prematurely and lived for only a few hours.

They went on to have five daughters before the birth of another son in 1971. The countess died on November 16 and is survived by her husband and six children.

Festivities planned at the rock houses

The Kinner Edge rock houses are opening for a special Christmas event on December 10 from 10am until 3pm.

The houses and tearooms will be decked with traditional decorations which will be made and put up by children at Brindley Heath Junior School. There will be carol singers, mince pies and hot chocolate in the tea rooms.

Views are sought on plans for market

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

More than 200 people have had their say on new £6million plans to revamp Dudley's historic market place.

Since a second public consultation began, Dudley Council has been inundated with people sharing their views on the scheme.

The plans have received a mixed response from people in town, with some welcoming the more modern designs for the market stalls while others have said they believe the revamp is not needed.

The consultation asks shoppers and traders about paving, seating, public art and lighting. An initial consultation was held in March and ran for six weeks.

It featured three different market place options, as well as plans to relocate the Duncan Edwards statue and to bring the fountain back into use by introducing lighting to highlight its special features.

After that, new proposals were drafted up which extended the scheme, including additional parking, new footpaths, improved controlled crossing points and new cycle parking in Castle Street, as well as improvements to the steps and frontage of St Edmunds Church.

Responses

The redevelopment of the market place now includes Castle Street, up to and including the Earl of Dudley statue.

Council spokeswoman Claire Marshall said: "The consultation is in its fourth week and so far we've had 203 responses."

An information stand was put up in the market place last week giving people the chance to find out more about the project.

Public art will feature in the overall scheme and shoppers and traders were able to view examples of the work.

A lighting display last week showed people examples of special features being lit up in Dudley town centre.

Questionnaires can be completed on the council's website before Saturday.

Councillor Angus Adams, cabinet member for economic regeneration, said: "The market place consultation looks at ways in which we can sympathetically restore and highlight the fantastic features of Dudley's historic town centre."

More than 600 people took part in the first consultation earlier this year.

Zoo's speedy new addition

Keeper, Jay Haywood (right) with students Harvey Price, Harley Hunt, Hannah Follows and Timmy the tortoise

An African spurred tortoise has joined Dudley Zoo, where he has been trailing keepers around at high speed – for a tortoise. The new addition has been named Timmy and assistant curator Richard Brown said he was proving popular with keepers at the zoo. He said: "He's been following staff around and he can really motor. He's 60cms long and could pretty much double his size in years to come."

Timmy also made his mark on a group of NVQ students who are now working at the zoo as part of a work-based Level 2 animal care course. The species originates in the African deserts and is endangered due to a demand for ornaments and fashion accessories made from their shells.

Howling dogs lead to woman in court

A dog owner was given a £320 court bill after neighbours complained her two pets were barking and howling in the evening, causing a noise nuisance.

Bus driver Rachel Bell, aged 50, was found guilty of breaching a noise abatement order at Dudley Magis-dudleychrons@

expressandstar.co.uk

trates Court following a trial. Magistrates last week told her she must recognise the "annoyance" her dogs' noise might cause neighbours – but said they sympathised with her position and cancelled the £5,000 penalty she could have faced.

Instead Bell, of Highfield Road, Sedgley, was given a conditional discharge for 12 months, and ordered to pay £320 court costs.

The court heard a noise abatement order was issued in February following complaints from Bell's next door neighbour.

Dudley Council officers visited the neighbour's home at around 6.40pm on March 6 following continued complaints, and community safety officer John Jones said in evidence the noise from the animals – a border collie and a Yorkshire Terrier-cross – had been "excessive" and could be heard over the television.

In defence, Tottenham fan Bell said on that date she had been to see Spurs' match against Wolves at Molineux, and had returned home by the time Mr Jones visited her neighbours.

She denied there had been any excessive barking, claiming they had only barked in greeting.

Chairman of magistrates Mr Robert Gilbert said: "I am a dog owner myself and sometimes dogs do bark – we appreciate that," he said. "But if you do have neighbours it can also be a major annoyance to them. If you can keep that to a minimum it's in your own interests."

Pampering for caring Pauline

Carer Pauline Heathcock, right, with Judith Worrall and Julie Miller, from Kidderminster, enjoying star treatment

A CARER for children and young people in Dudley has been given a five-star thank you from Barnardo's for her commitment to their fostering service.

Pauline Heathcock provides short respite breaks to children who live with Barnardo's foster parents across the West Midlands.

Pauline was one of 54 carers invited to an all expenses paid pamper day at the Copthorne Hotel, Merry Hill.

Tracey Coleman, support worker at Barnardo's fostering service, said: "We have fantastic carers who give their time and love tirelessly to make a difference to children and young people who have had a really difficult start and some who also have disabilities.

"This is a great way of giving them some time out and showing them they really are valued. We are very grateful to the Copthorne Hotel who generously offered their facilities for the day free of charge."

The family placement service recruit, train and provide ongoing support for carers and are constantly looking for more black and ethnic minority volunteers to get involved.

Chance

Matt Ward, father of two and general manager at the Copthorne hotel, said: "When the chance to open our doors to the local community and help people who are so committed to children came up we were really keen to get involved."

"It was the perfect opportunity to be able to support Barnardo's and the great work they do."

Options for troubled park to be discussed

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A dispersal order giving the police powers to break up nuisance gangs could be brought in at a trouble-plagued beauty spot in Wordsley.

The order is just one of the options being considered for King George V Park.

Other suggestions include installing floodlights at the children's play area where youths are known to gather at night.

The possible measures to protect the park from booze-fuelled vandal attacks will be discussed at a meeting of residents, councillors and police.

The meeting has been organised following a number of attacks over the years.

As well as the dispersal order covering Bell Lane, the times the park is locked up, and whether parts of the site should remain open to allow police quicker access should trouble be reported, will also be discussed.

The meeting will take place at the park tomorrow, December 2 and involves nearby residents, police, councillors and members of Dudley Council's Green Care team which looks after the park.

Plants have been torn up, litter strewn around the site and items such as fences and benches have been destroyed in previous attacks.

Support

Councillor Geoffrey Southall said residents reported that problems were continuing at the beauty spot at night.

He added: "This meeting has been organised to try and deal with this problem once and for all," he said.

"We are looking at the possibility of seeking a dispersal order for Bells Lane as one of the measures, and this meeting will allow us to gauge the support for that."

"Police will be taking part in the meeting so they will be able to take away the opinions given at the meeting in terms of that idea."

"We also want to get the views on floodlighting the play area as a deterrent against people gathering there at night."

"Presently the park is locked at night, although the times this happens seems to vary. This is also something we will be looking at."

Councillor Southall said that while it was not a public meeting, residents had been invited after councillors were approached by householders at a recent meeting of Brierley Hill Area Committee.

Santas set for festive run

Natasha Newman, Lucy Rutherford, Matthew Bright and Nigel Smith, from Waitrose, prepare for the Santa run

More than 400 people have signed up for an annual festive fun run in Stourbridge. Around 700 places are up for grabs in the Santa Jog organised in aid of Mary Stevens Hospice. Among those heading to Mary Stevens Park for the 5k route on December 11 at 10.30am will be 21 members of staff from Waitrose. Led by acting branch manager David Harcourt, the team has been in training for weeks.

More than 540 people entered the event in 2010, despite the snow, and the hospice fundraising team says it has been delighted with the response so far. Janet Jones, head of fundraising said: "It is really exciting to see so many registrations coming in. It is such a surreal sight to see so many people dressed in their Santa suits."

The entry fee is £12 for adults and £5 for children under 12. Those who take part get a free Santa suit and registration can be done online at www.marystevenshospice.co.uk. Entry forms can also be obtained from the fundraising office by calling 01384 377778.

College campaign steps up

A campaign to get a new University Technical College (UTC) built in Dudley has taken a leap forward after Education Secretary Michael Gove agreed to meet Dudley North MP Ian Austin to discuss the plans.

The issue was raised during the education questions session at the Commons.

Mr Austin has been campaigning to get a UTC in Dudley following the success of a £9.5 million project in Walsall, which he visited on recently. He told the session: "Credit where credit is due, I have to say I thought it was fantastic."

"Will the Secretary of State meet me soon so we can discuss how we can open a UTC in Dudley and deal with the urgent need to drive up vocational standards and bring new jobs and new industry to the area?"

Mr Gove replied: "It will be a joy." Speaking after the Commons session, Mr Austin said his visit to the Walsall UTC had re-informed his desire to see one in Dudley. "I'm delighted that Michael Gove has agreed to meet me to discuss the issue," he said.

"An area like ours which has lost jobs in traditional manufacturing but failed to attract new industries and new jobs needs to encourage young people to think about careers in engineering, advanced manufacturing and areas like research, development and design which is exactly what the UTCs are being established to do."

Ballot date for hospital

Ballot papers were being sent out to more than 13,000 homes this week as part of forthcoming elections for governor positions at Russells Hall Hospital.

Members of The Dudley Group of Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, which runs the hospital, are being urged to vote for their local candidates in the forthcoming council of governor elections to help them play a key role in the trust's future.

The trust's staff members will also be asked to make their vote count in the constituencies of non clinical staff and allied health professional and healthcare scientists. Ballots close on December 13.

Tattoo shop hit by theft

A tattoo shop was stripped of equipment in a burglary in Stourbridge. PC Jon Kirk, of Stourbridge police, said the raid on November 11 was at One Shot Charlie's in Lower High Street.

A box of specialist tools and equipment, worth about £300, was stolen, along with a massage bed. Anyone with information is asked to call police on 0345 113 5000.

Clothes plea to help homeless

Victor Fletcher from Cradley Heath appealing for unwanted coats this winter

The Salvation Army base in Cradley Heath is appealing for anyone with old coats to donate them to help the homeless this winter.

The Meredith Street centre has been chosen as a collection point for national campaign Donate a Coat, after the organisation and ITV's Daybreak programme teamed up to collect and distribute coats until Friday this week to help those in need.

Volunteer Victor Fletcher said: "The Salvation Army is recognised world-wide and working with Daybreak and its 800,000 viewers, we will be looking after the elderly, the homeless and children living below the poverty line."

The Cradley Heath centre is one of 200 across the country chosen to help in the effort to spread a little warmth this winter. The centre will be open from 9am to 5pm as a drop-off point, and the appeal will be publicised on Daybreak to get the word out.

National award for Somers Club efforts

Top again... Somers Sports and Social Club

dudleychrons@express
andstar.co.uk

A members' club in Halesowen, noted for its fundraising efforts, has been voted the best in the country for the second time in two years.

The Somers Sports and Social Club beat off competition from 12,000 others to receive the accolade.

Judges from industry experts at Club Mirror gave the Somers, off Grange Hill, the honour at an awards ceremony in Manchester on November 10.

Club managers Joanne and Ian Bamford were also voted in the top five managers in the country for the last three years.

Somers Club chairman, Paul Hill, said: "We are all very proud of our achievements over the last few years as the club has been turned around from near closure to become a thriving part of our local community."

Expectations

"To be honoured in this way by Club Mirror for the second time in two years has to show that we are in tune with the requirements and expectations of our members and to this end we would like to thank everyone for their support and especially thank our managers and staff."

The club recently raised £2,530 for Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital and has helped charities in the area for many years.

It's Grange II-listed headquarters, The Grange, has been home to the club since 1950 when it was given as a trust to the workers and families of Walter Somers Ltd.

Bogus callers alert

Eight reports of bogus callers targeting householders have been reported in Dudley over the last couple of months according to new figures.

Police say six "distraction burglaries" were reported in the borough during October and another two in November.

There have been claims some of the callers said they were from "the water board."

Bosses at South Staffs Water say around half bogus callers use this claim in order to gain entry to houses of elderly or vulnerable people but employees of South Staffs Water would never use this phrase and the company is urging residents to be vigilant in checking the identity of callers if they have any doubts about them.

All South Staffs Water employees, and authorised contractors, wear a uniform and carry identity cards that they will produce when calling at a customer's home.

If in any doubt, do not callers in and contact your local police station on 0345 113 5000.

Crooked pub aims to pull in film punters

Filmstar - The Crooked House pub in Himley

It will be lights, camera and action for a famous Black Country pub soon as filming begins for a ghost movie.

The film, called The Crooked House, will be shot at the tilting pub in Himley and will be released in the UK and US. Los Angeles film-maker Mark Todd, who comes from Wednesbury, will travel from LA in the new year to begin work on the project.

The main film will tell the story of an LA-based English film director who buys the Crooked House and moves in with his American wife.

Soon ghosts start to appear and set off a chain of events, climaxing in a dramatic ending. A cast of up-and-coming actors from both the Midlands and America have been given parts in the movie, using contacts Mr Todd has made through his career.

While shooting the film Mr Todd, 46, will also make a documentary about ghosts in Dudley - looking in particular at the castle and the Talbot Hotel.

He said: "It's very exciting and I'm so glad it's all finally coming together. This will be a great thing for the area and will really put the Crooked House on the map. It's such a fascinating place that I just knew I had to make a film there when I visited." Mr Todd said he believes American audiences will love the film.

He said: "Americans are into anything that is typically English and this definitely fits the bill."

Narnia is recreated

Trevor Baker, Margaret Parker and Sharon Baker take a trip to Narnia

Children will be able to step into the magical land of Narnia this Christmas thanks to donations to a Dudley church.

Huge Christmas trees, snow and even Aslan the Lion will greet schoolchildren visiting a winter wonderland created by the Revival Fire Church Mission, Wolverhampton Street.

Volunteers have spent two weeks creating a festive experience inspired by CS Lewis' The Chronicles of Narnia in a 9,000 sqft warehouse next to the church.

Donations of trees and other decorations have been used to transform the warehouse to create a trail for children to explore landmarks made famous in the book.

The show will open on December 3 until December 21 with the Mayor of Dudley Councillor Michael Evans paying a visit to the display and interactive experience on December 4.

Church leader Trevor Baker, aged 59, who leads the congregation with his wife Sharon, says the display was created to get across the Christian message behind Christmas. He said: "Christmas is about an empowering experience. Everyone is making cutbacks at the moment but we didn't want to cut back on Christmas and there is a wonderful message in the story of Narnia that good can triumph over evil."

Woman in £32,000 benefits fraud

A fraudster from Halesowen illegally pocketed around £32,000 in benefits, Wolverhampton Crown Court heard.

Marie Flavell collected income support along with housing and council tax pay outs to which she was not entitled for two years before the con was uncovered by investigators.

The 42-year-old, who had been legitimately claiming the state handouts as a lone parent, failed to notify the authorities when her boyfriend set up home with her, revealed prosecutor Joe Templeton.

She was paid more than £80,000 in benefits since the original claim was made but only around £32,000 of that was received fraudulently, the court heard.

Circumstances

Ironically, she would have got roughly the same amount of money in different benefits such as tax credit if she had told the truth about her circumstances, Mr Anthony Bell, defending, said. "She was not enjoying a life of luxury. It was still life on the bread-line," he added.

Flavell, from Huntlands Road, admitted last week to failing to report a change in her circumstances between 2007 and 2009 and was given a 20-week prison sentence suspended for 18 months under supervision and ordered to do 180 hours unpaid work.

Judge Michael Dudley said "hard working people" were fed up with cheats.

Fishing lake plan approved

A revived bid to install a fishing lake on land in Halesowen has been given the go-ahead despite concerns over wildlife.

Proposals for the development on land currently used for horse grazing in Hagley Road were thrown out by Dudley Council planners last year and dismissed on appeal by the planning inspectorate.

But renewed plans without an amenity building, which was originally proposed, were approved by the council's development control committee last week.

Ward councillor Ken Turner told the meeting that 25 people had raised concerns and said he was "surprised" the plans had been submitted again.

He said important wildlife and archaeology at the site would be lost.

Residents were worried there will be extra traffic and also have concerns about the noise, he said.

But landowner Andy Foxhall said he had worked with the Environment Agency and they had not objected to the proposals.

Landlord of the Year award

A property businessman with houses across Sedgley and Gornal has won a prestigious Landlord of the Year award in a national ceremony.

The national Landlord and Lettings Awards were held on November 16 and Andy Burton beat 20 others from across the country to claim the crown.

It is the third time Mr Burton, who is also a director at Cradley Heath firm Orbit Bearings and Transmission, has taken home a prize from the event, but the first time he has been named Landlord of the Year.

"I'm really proud to have been awarded this," said Mr Burton, aged 57, of Compton Road, Wolverhampton.

Service

"I have been letting for 33 years now and was nominated by my ex-tenants, so it is a great achievement.

"I operate a feedback system during the tenancy to make sure I'm providing the best service I can.

"I try to treat my tenants as customers, rather than just a way to make money."

The awards ceremony was held at the NEC in Birmingham last month, hosted by television presenter and property investor Melissa Porter.

DIY decorations to brighten homes

PEOPLE can make their own Christmas decorations during a special workshop for adults in West Bromwich.

The session on December 5 will be held at the Oak House Museum in Oak Road between 10am and 1pm.

Jane Hanney, museum services manager at Sandwell Museum Service, said: "We ran a similar workshop last year, and it was totally sold out."

"People really enjoyed the session and were excited about making their own decorations."

"We run so many events for families and children, and adults were saying that they would like to join in too."

"Visitors can make a unique stitched Christmas decoration to take home and display this Christmas and keep for the future."

"We have limited places, so we ask that those wishing to take part call the house to book a place."

The session costs £4. To book, call 0121 553 0759.

Visit

Other activities at the Oak House Museum this Christmas include a Tudor Christmas event on December 4, a visit from Santa and activities on December 10 and a Carols by Candlelight event with the Salvation Army on December 15.

Council home sales show a recent drop

NUMBERS of people buying their council homes in Sandwell have plummeted in recent years.

Sales were in their hundreds from 2001/02 to 2007/08, peaking in 2003/04 when 1,026 people bought their homes.

But the past two years only 102 people taking up the option.

Councillor Ray Nock, the leader of Sandwell's opposition Conservative group, said numbers have fallen after discounts were discontinued.

He said: "I'm not surprised that the right to buy numbers have dipped after Labour withdrew a number of discounts. 'I am so pleased Government has announced it will be reintroducing a form of right to buy with five per cent deposits on mortgages to help Sandwell residents buy their council homes. I think this is the way forward."

Latest figures show in 2007/08 213 people bought their council home. But that figure more than halved to 91 the year after and went down again to 47 in 2009/10 and 55 last year.

A total of 4,376 people have bought their homes over the past 10 years.

Backing

Councillor Nock said he was backing a Whitehall suggestion to introduce a form of the right to buy scheme launched in the 1980s.

Margaret Thatcher's Government of the time allowed council tenants to buy their council homes at a discount.

Tenants who lived there for up to three years got a 33 per cent discount on the property's market value, increasing to up to 50 per cent discounts for people with tenancies of 20 years.

The Communities and Local Government Secretary Eric Pickles recently said at the Conservative Party conference he was planning to relaunch the scheme. He has not yet said what discounts will be offered.

Councillor Nock added he hoped the move would bring in cash, as well as help people from the borough to get on the property ladder.

Council bosses hope to build 700 homes a year up to 2015 to help struggling residents from the six towns get to buy their first homes. It is anticipated it would cost £280 million.

Cabbies hit in blitz

Two private hire taxi drivers have had their licences suspended and one minibus banned from the road after police found they were being driven with "dangerous" defects. Halesowen police working with taxi licensing enforcement officers from Dudley Council checked private hire taxis during the school run.

During the operation, nine cars were checked and a third were found to be driving despite problems including poor tyre tread, broken headlights and indicators.

Sgt Martin Hall, from the Halesowen North neighbourhood policing team, said the event had been carried out as part of ongoing partnership working between the police and council.

"One vehicle – a minibus – had to be taken off the road completely due to the number of defects and the general poor condition," he said. "It was a very successful morning and we are pleased with what we have achieved."

"When there are defects such as a bad general condition, tyre tread, or lighting offences it can be a danger and enforcement officers are quite rightly very hot on these."

The fruits of labour

Dudley Zookeeper Kirsty Thornton with a saki monkey and a much-prized corn on the cob, part of leftovers donated by town market stallholders

A dedicated keeper at Dudley Zoo uses her own lunch-break to dash off around the nearby market and pick up tasty treats for the animals in her care.

Kirsty Thornton volunteers to make the daily dash around the town's market stalls to provide the Castle Hill attraction's primates and porcupines with a varied diet.

Juicy treats are now put aside for the animals. The generosity of workers in the town means the animals get treats such as grapes, sweetcorn, parsnips, spring onions, plums and strawberries. Kirsty said: "Most days I leave a few minutes spare in my lunch break and then make a mad dash to the market."

"Some of the stallholders have fruit and vegetables in boxes and the council's employees also look for tasty left-over food and keep it in their storeroom."

"There are some lovely treats. A lot of the food goes to the primates as I work on that section."

"The orang-utans, howler monkeys and capuchins regularly enjoy tittbits I have collected from the market. The crested porcupines also eat some of the vegetables."

Group is handed £9,000 for study

A Black Country group has received £9,000 for a feasibility study on improvements to a community centre.

Quarry Bank Community Association has been told its bid for cash from the Big Lottery Fund has been successful. It will be used to look at ways Quarry Bank Community Centre can be refurbished to benefit existing users.

Members of the association also hope improving the building will lead to it being used more by the community. The study will look at the possibility of providing a second hall, additional meeting rooms and upgrading the kitchen.

Plans to improve disabled facilities and the creation of a public square will also be looked at.

The study will produce a digital survey of the centre as it is now and create computer modelling of what it could look like.

These findings and options will be presented for community discussion and approval at the Diamond Jubilee consultation day in June 2012.

Blackpool honour for comedian Tommy

Veteran Black Country entertainer Tommy Mundon has had his name immortalised in granite as part of a new "comedy carpet" in front of Blackpool Tower.

The 77-year-old comedian said he was "gobsmacked" at the news.

And he is in side-splittingly good company with more than 1,000 comedians from the last 100 years, from Mae West to Matt Lucas.

The Black Country star, who is still performing despite battling against Parkinson's Disease, only knew he featured on the 2,200 square metre piece of art when a friend returned from Blackpool and told him they had seen his name on it.

And he doesn't mind at all that millions of people are likely to walk all over him in future decades, or even centuries, as his name features alongside his comedy heroes Ken Dodd and Frankie Howerd, as well as Spike Milligan, Peter Cook and Morecambe and Wise.

On his own particular "slab" of the incredible work of art, close to a "Monty Python" section, are comedians near to him alphabetically, including Frank Muir, Al Murray and

Tommy Mundon - happy

Neil Morrissey. "It's bostin' news and I'm gobsmacked and really chuffed that people are now walking all over me," said Tommy, who lives with his wife, Val, in Alexandra Road, Halesowen.

"I've only ever performed in Blackpool three times - more than 10 years ago at private functions for something like the George Formby Society's annual dinner. So to feature alongside all those famous comedians is a surprise to me."

Artist Gordon Young and designer Andy Altmann have been creating the artwork which is the centrepiece of the new headland under Blackpool Tower, over the last five years. It is made from more than 180,000 pieces of granite letters set in concrete blocks and was launched by Ken Dodd.

Mr Young said: "We wanted to mark the fact so many wonderful British and international comedians had appeared in Blackpool. With the help of local expert Barry Band we were able to find almost 1,000 funny men and women who had performed in Blackpool, including Tommy Mundon, and their contribution to entertainment history is now set in stone."

Former Miss Universe's last dance

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A former Miss Universe from the Midlands is finally hanging up her rock 'n' roll dresses - after becoming a grandmother.

Chris Charles has been organising dances for good causes for a decade.

She has helped raise thousands for charity but is to stage her final event on Friday.

The 65-year-old, from Prestwood, near Stourbridge, now wants to spend more time with her family following the birth of grandson Liam on September 30.

Her final fundraiser will be held at Brierley Hill Civic Hall. A beneficiary this year will be the brain tumour research group at Birmingham University.

Chris Charles, now a 65-year-old grandmother and, below, winning the Miss Britain title in 1972

Proved

Chris, who won the Miss Universe competition in 1972, organised her first dance as a reunion for people who used to attend rock 'n' roll events at Wordsley's Richardson Hall.

It proved so successful more events were held. But Chris believes it is now time for her to take a break.

She said: "The dances have been really popular and I will be really sad when my last event comes around. However, with the birth of my grandson Liam I really want to spend more time with him and my daughter Jane."

Tickets for the fundraiser are £10 and are available on 07870 312281.

Students' festive diner

CATERING students at Halesowen College will be cooking up a festive feast to mark the launch of their Christmas menu.

First and second year students will transform their training restaurant and serve an array of traditional and creative treats from December 7 to 9 and December 13 to 16.

Claire Abson, restaurant trainer and assessor, said: "Come and relax into Christmas with your friends, family and work colleagues and enjoy a truly festive feast."

Guests should arrive for a pre-dinner aperitif at 6.45pm ready for dinner to be served at 7pm.

Meals are £14.95 per person. For more details call the booking centre between 8am and 5pm on 0121 602 7851 or 0121 602 7777 ext 211 between 5pm and 9pm.

Seasonal blast from band

A BRASS band in Halesowen will raise the roof of a Cradley church for a seasonal performance in the run-up to their 25th anniversary.

Halesowen Brass Band will perform a host of traditional carols at Overend Methodist Mission, on Banners Street, at 6pm, on Sunday December 4.

Organiser Margaret Bradley said: "We are particularly fortunate in having our own band in Halesowen. This is a wonderful opportunity for people to get into the Christmas spirit."

The concert is free but donations for the band are encouraged.

They are quite lively, they are good fun – especially in the wet, says Chris, 25

Once they were ‘nerdy’ cars now they have youth appeal

CHRIS Whitehouse was barely born when the last Ford Capri rolled off the production line in December, 1986.

This year he bought his third Capri, seven years after picking up his first at the tender age of 18.

“Drivers of modern cars would be surprised if they drove one of these, especially in the wet,” he says. “They are quite lively, they are good fun.”

The 25-year-old HGV driver is one of a growing number of young motorists who are turning to older cars. A survey by breakdown company Britannia Rescue revealed that older cars, including many once considered unfashionable or “nerdy”, are among the most popular with drivers under the age of 40.

A few years ago it would have been hard to imagine the Capri – the preferred transport of Terry McCann out of Minder – as being a popular choice among the younger set. Del Boy, in Only Fools and Horses also owned a Capri.

“One or two people have called me Del Boy,” admits Chris, from Habberley Road, Rowley Regis.

But soaring insurance costs, coupled with the simple mechanics and low depreciation of older cars, has led to a surge in demand for cars from the 1970s and 80s.

And many image conscious youngsters have cottoned on to the fact that an older car, even a run-of-the-mill motor such as a Vauxhall Cavalier or Ford Sierra, will cut far more of a dash than the lookalike vehicles of today.

“I’ve always had a thing for Capris, I just like the shape,” says Chris, who also has a modern Volvo.

“I get far more people look at me in the Capri than I do in the Volvo, and that is all body-kitted up,” he says.

“But for a lot of young people it is the cost of insurance. When you hit 21 the classic car insurance kicks in, and it’s the difference between paying £300 and three grand.

“Also, the prices are shooting up. If you buy a Corsa or something, it’s worth next to nothing when you come to sell.”

Another youngster who has caught on to the appeal of classic motoring is 17-year-old Sam Rodgers from Brierley Hill, near Dudley, who spent two-and-a-half years restoring his 1989 Mini with the help of his father.

“At first, when I was growing up, I wanted a Clio or something like that, but by the time I was 14 I really wanted a Mini,” says Sam, who is studying for his A-levels at King Edward VI College in Stourbridge.

“My dad said if I really wanted one I could have one, but we would have to do it ourselves.

“We paid £100 for it, and then every night we had free we were out in the garage working on it. More young people are looking at older cars, but it has to be a particular type.

“There is a lad I was at school with, he’s got a Mini now, and there is someone at college who has got an old Beetle.”

Brett Guest, a chef from the Kates

Chris Whitehouse, aged 25, with his Ford Capri – “they are good fun”

Hill area of Dudley, was 30 years old when he bought his 1966 Mk1 Ford Cortina five years ago.

“Every time you fill up with petrol it takes you half an hour, because everybody wants to talk to you about it,” he says.

“If you look at modern cars today, they all look the same. A few years ago the Subaru Impreza had its own shape, but now if you park a Subaru Impreza, a Seat Leon and a Ford Focus ST next to one another, it would be hard to tell which was which.”

Now 35, Brett says his 15-year-old son will eventually inherit his immaculate Cortina.

Television and film exposure could be another reason why some seemingly unlikely cars have become the must-have thing among the younger generation.

A few years ago the Honda Civic was not a car that would normally be associated with youth culture.

While praised for its engineering and durability, it suffered from an “old man’s car image” – perhaps not helped by its appearance as Victor Meldrew’s car in One Foot In The Grave.

But the 2001-2003 Civic tops the poll of “geek chic” cars in Britannia Rescue survey, with 45 per cent of classic car dealers reporting renewed interest in the car following an appearance in the film The Fast and The Furious.

However, the 1,115 drivers aged 18 to 38 who took part in the survey said their liking for older cars had nothing to do with their celebrity status, and was more to do with style (19 per cent) and low depreciation (18 per cent).

Even the much-derided Austin Maxi seems to be gaining a new lease of life.

“A lad over the road has got a Maxi, it has been in his family since about 1973,” says Brett.

“He put it up for sale a while ago and he was over-run with kids wanting to buy it. In the end he decided he couldn’t part with it.”

Left: Sam Rodgers, aged 17, with his 1989 Mini and, right, the 1966 Mk1 Cortina that is the pride and joy of 35-year old chef Brett Guest

Expect plenty of fun and games at the display

Santa's Christmas train, the Merry Hill Express

FAMILIES are being given the chance to get into the festive spirit at Merry Hill Shopping Centre's Christmas Grotto, which is open to shoppers until Christmas Eve.

The centre has been transformed into a winter wonderland with the arrival of the grotto which features a whole host of festive activities, including cheeky penguins and interactive games created especially by Santa's elves.

Shoppers can climb aboard the Merry Hill Express in Fountain Square, on the lower mall near M&S – the experience starts from just £3.95 per child, including a present from Santa. Once inside Santa's grotto, visitors will get the chance to meet and receive a gift from Santa and have their photograph taken with him.

To celebrate the arrival of the amazing Grotto, Merry Hill has teamed up with West Midland Safari Park to offer five lucky winners a special festive gift package which includes a family pass to the safari park, a £50 gift card to spend at Merry Hill, as well as a family invitation to Merry Hill's Christmas Grotto.

Cancer patients' bus axed to save money

HUNDREDS of people, including cancer sufferers travelling for radiotherapy, will be hit as a hard-up charity cuts its bus service between Sandwell and Birmingham.

The Murray Hall Community Trust is stopping the Bridges Support Service for people having cancer treatment at Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Edgbaston after it overspent by £80,000. Changes will affect 470 people, the trust said – although patients will still be able to travel to Sandwell, City, Rowley Regis and Russells Hall hospitals.

Trust chiefs said stopping the service would only save £20,000 – a quarter of the money it needs to save – and it is not certain how they will balance the books.

Cancer survivor Arnold Farrington, aged 76, of Oldbury, sandwellchronicle@expressandstar.co.uk

said: "The NHS has done me proud but this decision makes it seem as though the people making the decisions are not concerned for the people going through all this."

Manjula Patel, health services manager for Murray Hall, said: "We have asked the primary care trust for more funding but they have money set aside in their budget as well."

Grant

Spokeswoman Laura Broster said it already funded patient transport services from hospitals in the borough and to City Hospital at Winson Green.

Murray Hall now plans to apply for a Macmillan Cancer Support grant on behalf of every patient they can in a bid to help fund alternative transport.

Investigation after passengers stranded at Austrian airport

AN AIRLINE boss has promised to investigate reports that passengers travelling from India were stranded in Austria until they had a whip round to pay an extra £20,000 towards the cost of completing their journey to Birmingham Airport.

It also led to angry scenes at a Smethwick travel agents' shop.

Those on board said they were "held to ransom" for six hours in Vienna. It came after a flight with Austrian airline Comtel Air from Amritsar in India stopped to refuel.

Passengers, many from the West Midlands, told how they had to hand over about £20,000 to pay for the rest of the journey and cover the landing tax. More than 180 passengers got back to Birmingham three days later than planned.

Comtel Air's director of passenger services Bhupinder Kandra said: "It shouldn't have happened and I will investigate why it happened. The people who had to pay the money will receive a refund."

Asked if the company was going bust, he said:

"There is no chance of that. Comtel is a very strong company, 16 years in Vienna." Meanwhile, customers who booked the Comtel Air flights with a Smethwick travel firm had crowded into the shop demanding a refund for flights to India. Scores descended on Takhar Travel, in High Street, on November 16.

Staff at the travel agent told furious passengers they should apply under the Air Travel Organiser's Licence (ATOL) scheme to get a refund.

Hardip Singh, aged 26, of White Road, Smethwick, said he was worried about his uncle in India who was due to fly back to the UK in early December. "We have paid £490 for the ticket," he added.

Jurisdiction

Birmingham Airport spokesman Daniel Scaife said: "Comtel Air has a contractual arrangement with an approved airline to operate this service."

A spokesman for the Civil Aviation Authority said: "It is an Austrian airline, so we have no direct jurisdiction over it."

"We are looking to see if people who bought their holiday in Britain bought it through an ATOL-licensed tour operator."

"If they did, that tour operator needs to step in to arrange new flights for them."

Lions roar into action for valley

A PRIDE of Lions armed with spades descend on Sandwell Valley Country Park for their Help the Environment Day.

The charity-supporting Lions club members planted more than 950 saplings of various types.

Paul Murphy of Sandwell Lions said: "Part of our club's service activity this year is caring for our environment. Trees are like the lungs of the planet, breathing in carbon dioxide and breathing out oxygen."

They also reduce erosion to save soil, help preserve local water sources and provide habitat for wildlife.

Sandwell Lions had earlier donated £200 to Sandwell Valley Park for the purchase of spades and gloves.

Rugby masterclass

TEENAGERS in Tipton have been getting a masterclass in rugby from Austin Healey.

The 38-year-old, who played for England and Leicester Tigers, was at RSA Academy along with three players from Worcestershire Warriors.

They were teaching students at the academy, which only started rugby coaching last year, basic skills including how to pass, tackle and evade a tackle.

The visit was arranged by sports teacher John Anderson with help from sports television channel ESPN.

The school's Lesley James said: "The kids had a brilliant time and have benefited from some top quality coaching."

Staff at the Bilston Road school are now trying to organise for Healey, who took part in the sixth series of Strictly Come Dancing in 2008, to return to the school for more coaching in the summer.

Nurse call for ill staff wanting sick day

A PILOT scheme to cut absences at Sandwell Council, where workers ring nurses directly instead of their manager, will be rolled out across the whole authority by Christmas.

Last year's absence figures showed staff took an average of 10 days off each.

Staff in the adult social care department then became the first to trial a scheme under which they will ring an occupational health advisor, a qualified nurse, instead of their line manager to call in sick.

The move comes after latest figures showed employees took an average of 9.66 days off each in 2010/11. The national average is about eight days.

Now council chief executive Jan Britton has said the scheme could be in place for the whole authority by Christmas.

Private

He said: "The pilot project in adults is going well and the plan is to roll this new system out to the rest of the council before Christmas."

The average figure of 9.66 days absence per council worker is down on figures for 2009/10. In that year the authority's staff took an average of 10.58 days off sick, and five years ago employees took an average of 14 days each.

Latest figures place national sickness absence for councils at around eight days per employee while in the private sector average absence stands at between six and six-and-a-half days per employee.

Mass zumba boost for charities

AROUND 300 people took part in a charity zumba event in Birmingham. Participants danced for three hours at the Aston Arena.

The amount raised is expected to be about £3,000. Acorns Children's Hospice, Cancer Research UK, the Refuge for Women and Children and Global Children's trust are all set to benefit.

The Waltz King of Europe is returning to the UK with his Orchestra to perform in concert next year at The O2 Arena in London.

Acknowledged as one of the world's greatest living musical legends, Dutch-born Andre Rieu was classically trained, and is now an accomplished violinist, an excellent conductor and a truly remarkable showman.

With his orchestra, choir and soloists, he brings a delightful and innovative approach to his concerts, recreating the atmosphere of 19th century Viennese dance halls, where audiences sway with the music, hum along and even dance in the aisles – it all happens!

During the concert you will hear music from across the star's repertoire, from his first album, 'Strauss & Co' to his latest release, 'And the Waltz Goes On'. It will be a truly wonderful experience that you'll remember for years to come.

BOOKS

Cracking contraptions and marvellous manuals

HAYNES workshop manuals have long been a mainstay of an amateur car mechanic's garage or workshop but in recent years the respected imprint has diversified into other areas, including out-and-out fantasy engineering. Here's a round-up of several new Haynes titles, for vehicles both real and imagined.

Wallace & Gromit: Cracking Contraptions Manual 2 (£12.99)
From the Bun Vac 6000 to the Mind Manipulation-o-matic via the LAD (Labour Assisting Device), another selection of barmy creations from the wonderful world of Wallace and Gromit are brought to life with detailed technical descriptions. A collaboration between Haynes and Aardman animation.

MG: Britain's Favourite Sports Car (£25)

The third edition in the Haynes Classic Makes Series pays homage to the pride of Longbridge. Handsomely illustrated and rich in detail, enthusiast Malcolm Green's work on the MG, first published in 1998, has been updated by motoring journalist Andrew Roberts.

Routemaster Bus: 1954 onwards (all marks) (£21.99)

This enthusiast's manual celebrates the classic red double-decker that became an icon of London and served the capital for more than half a century. The much-detested bendy buses certainly never replaced the Routemaster in the hearts of Londoners and some might say Britain has never been quite the same since they were finally retired from service in 2005.

Co-founder of the Routemaster Association Andrew Morgan must have considered putting this book together a labour of love, he even owns a rare single-decker Routemaster.

Millennium Falcon: Modified YT-1300 Corellian Freighter (£14.99)

With the exception of the USS Enterprise (which has also had the Haynes treatment), there can be no space ship more famous in the annals of science fiction than Han Solo and Chewbacca's craft from the Star Wars movies.

The souped-up freighter is explored in meticulous detail in this manual approved by Lucasfilm and created by a team of Star Wars devotees.

Driving Games: From Gran Trak 10 to Gran Turismo (£9.99)

It is fitting that an imprint so associated with the mechanics of the motor car has seen fit to cast its expert eye over the evolution of the driving genre in video games.

Fifty of the best releases are selected, from arcade and home console releases, ranging from the very basic Chequered Flag for the ZX Spectrum in 1983 to Forza Motorsport 2 for the Xbox 360.

Self-cracking, how ingenious!

But don't expect it to be bang up to date, this was put together in 2008.

'Tis the season to get gaming

HERE'S a round-up of the more family-friendly console games available this festive season.

The Kinect add-on is really beginning to take off with Xbox 360 users. As well as turning the X360 into a Wii-style console, it is also set to become a futuristic aid to operating the console, particularly as Microsoft's device is set to become even more of an entertainment centre.

Before Christmas, an Xbox Live update promises to make every Xbox 360 feel brand new with a fresh dashboard incorporating voice control and gestures for navigating via the Kinect sensor. There will be applications for catch-up TV and movies on demand, internet video, social networking and Cloud storage for game saves and each Live member profile.

Kinect Sports Season Two

The developers have listened to sports fans and have introduced six new sports to Kinect – skiing, darts, tennis, golf, baseball and American football. All six allow two to four players in either turn-based or simultaneous play. There are also lots of mini-games, known as 'activities', at which you can also challenge your friends whether they are in the room with you or somewhere else in the world via Xbox Live. There is also an in-game calorie counter if you want to use Kinect Sports Season 2 to burn off the festive excesses.

Kinectimals: Now With Bears

The sequel to the best-selling kids' title for Kinect is bound to be another hit with the introduction of cuddly bear cubs. Though you can still opt to adopt a playful cat if you prefer. No ordinary moggy, mind you, the choice includes lions, tigers, panther, cheetah and leopard. The bear necessities include panda, black bear, grizzly, cinnamon and polar bears. Care for them, teach them tricks and even talk to your exotic pet.

Dance Central 2

Get the party started as the delirious dance title – the Kinect's not dance game – returns with more moves, more songs and promises more fun. New songs include Grenade by Bruno Mars, Born This Way by Lady Gaga, Rude Boy by Rihanna and Willow's Whip My Hair. Now it has two-player simultaneous multi-player... so make sure you clear plenty of room in front of the telly!

Disneyland Adventure

Go on a virtual trip to the many worlds of the Disneyland park, meet and greet your favourite Disney characters, explore real iconic park locations and engage in up to 100 quests, with the Kinect adding that extra pinch of pixie dust.

Disney Universe

More Disney magic with a mischievous twist is available in this non-Kinect title where you can suit up in an outfit based on your favourite Disney or Pixar character for a Little Big Planet/Lego style romp through levels drawn from classic Disney movies, both animated and live action.

Lego Harry Potter: Years 5-7

This is also a non-Kinect title but the witty Lego take on the Harry Potter saga is great fun and here reaches its big finale, the showdown between Harry and Voldemort.

Games reviewed on Xbox 360, Disney Universe and Lego Harry Potter are also available for other formats.

Calling all Batman fans

BradyGames have published probably their most handsome title yet in their strategy guide Signature Series with Batman Arkham City (£12.99). It is a complete walk-through of the entire new Batman game with every area of Arkham City mapped while every super-villain gets a biography. Not just a good guide to one of the year's top games but a good tie-in souvenir in its own right.

HONDA drivers can be ready when the cold weather comes thanks to a new winter care programme, which includes a seasonal health check, a full winter service – and the opportunity to purchase a pair of tyre snow socks.

They can be kept in the boot and slipped on to the front set of tyres when needed. From £70 per pair, snow socks provide extra traction to increase grip on snow without causing noise or vibration while driving.

"After several severe winters in a row, we are keen to ensure Honda customers are fully prepared and able to stay mobile where possible," commented Dave Hodgetts, Managing Director of Honda (UK).

Honda is also offering customers who purchase a set of winter tyres a cost effective storage solution.

cost covers a 12-month period and includes two tyre transfers to/from the Honda dealership – perfect for winter and summer changeovers.

Honda drivers can make sure their car is in tip-top condition for the cold weather by taking it to a Honda dealer for a reassuring winter health check.

Qualified Honda technicians will inspect the battery, windscreen, tyres, brakes and lights, and will also ensure

Honda's snow socks are easy to fit and offer extra traction

the engine coolant and screenwash are all filled up.

The winter health check costs just £40 and customers will receive a complimentary winter safety kit worth £24.99.

This handy pack includes a foldable snow shovel, foil blanket, high-visibility vest and LED torch.

For that added extra piece of mind, drivers can book their car in for a full winter service. On top of an oil and filter change and checks across the car undertaken by a qualified technician, Honda is also adding a year's complimentary UK roadside assistance worth £99.

To book in for a health check or winter service and to order a set of snow socks visit www.honda.co.uk for further information and to find your nearest Honda dealership.

Backing into good deal on Motability

The new Myvi SXI is offered with an interest free finance package until the end of next month

FREE reverse park control is now available to all Motability customers opting for a new Perodua Myvi during November and December.

This new offer is available across the Myvi range and is completely free of charge to Motability customers whose applications are submitted to and accepted by Motability up to December 31.

The stylish Myvi super-mini, which already has a high specification as standard, will now benefit from reverse park control helping avoid any unwanted bumps and keeping the Myvi in perfect condition.

With competitive weekly payments and no advance payment required across most of the range, the Myvi is currently available to Motability customers from as little as £46.73 per week.

The Myvi has air conditioning, four electric windows, electric door mirrors, integral radio/CD player, central locking, plus much more as standard.

A four-speed fully automatic version is available from just £49.95 per week.

Practical

The Myvi is incredibly spacious for a super-mini, with a surprising amount of head and leg room allowing five adults to travel comfortably.

Should additional space be required, the Myvi has a practical and simple to use 60:40 split fold-flat rear seat system which transforms the vehicle to carry luggage and bulky items with ease.

Motability customers interested in benefiting from this new offer are advised to contact their nearest Perodua Motability dealer whose details can be found by visiting www.perodua.co.uk or by calling 01491 415230.

Perodua is also offering interest free finance to customers purchasing a new Myvi SXI between now and the end of December.

This offer means that Myvi SXI customers don't have to part with their hard earned cash all at once or worry about interest charges - simply let Perodua pay the interest for you!

This new offer is valid with a specific finance deal which works with a 50 per cent deposit of £3,499.50 and the balance is repayable over a period of 24 months, with 23 payments of £145.81 and one final payment of £145.87.

RUBY

Is a very small beautiful 2 year old Jack Russell who is looking for a forever home, after a very bad start.

Due to her bad start, at the moment she is very needy, so for that reason we think she would benefit from the company of another dog or dogs.

If you can offer her that stability, then with patience Ruby will return your kindness back a million times.

Tivdale push their claim for title

Westfields1 Tivdale 2

TIVDALE fired out a Midland Alliance title warning with an impressive success over pre-season championship favourites Westfields.

In a pulsating game, the visitors fully deserved the three points. Not only for the way they outplayed the strong Herefordshire side, but because they kept their discipline and handled some questionable decisions from the officials, including two very innocuous bookings in the first 10 minutes.

Tivdale started brightly and for the first 15 minutes the home side couldn't get the ball anywhere near the visitors' penalty area. Indeed, Tivdale should have gone in front after just four minutes when Bekir Halil and Jason Chilton teamed up brilliantly down the left with the latter's cross just evading Chris Russell with the goal at his mercy.

Tivdale were rocked when the hosts took the lead against the run of play. A harmless looking effort from Carl Morgan took a couple of deflections and completely wrong-footed keeper Tim Beech.

The second half continued much in the same way as the first but with even more Tivdale dominance and enterprise. Jukes and Russell were constantly causing all sorts of problems up front with the two Adams – Hill and Wattle – dominating the middle.

It seemed just a matter of time before Tivdale scored and on 68 minutes they deservedly equalised when Jukes fired home from close range.

By the time the equaliser came, the home side were on the ropes.

It did, however, take Tivdale until the 82nd minute to grab what proved to be the winning goal. Andy Parsons rose to power home a header from 12 yards

THANK EVANS FOR SAVING THE YELTZ

HALESOWEN 0 POOLE TOWN 0

Heroic home goalkeeper Paul Evans kept out a Poole penalty and produced a series of superb saves to earn Halesowen a point in this Evo-Stik League Southern Division One South and West clash.

Evans kept the scores level with a top class double penalty save from Micky Hubbard in the 28th minute after Hubbard had been brought down by Brendan Kelly.

Evans dived to his left to keep out the Dolphins' spot-kick and then punched the rebound clear. Halesowen's best chance of the first half fell after just five minutes.

Justin Nisbett exposed mid-table Poole's defence but Anthony Bruce dragged his shot wide when free in the penalty area.

The Yeltz created just a few further half-chances, although Gavin Saunders struck wide on the half-volley and Nisbett fired over before the interval.

Early in the second half, Lee Chilton volleyed a clever flick from Nathan Jones wide.

Deflection

Evans excelled again with a superb 56th minute reflex save after Carl Preston's volley took a late deflection towards the top corner off Kane Daysh.

Chilton then did well to hold off two defenders before turning to shoot at visiting goalkeeper Nick Hutchings.

But Evans kept the score-sheet blank with two further splendid late saves.

The agile goalkeeper scooped the ball out from Michael Walker's 80th minute header and then denied Preston after Halesowen full-back James Loney lost the ball.

Poole captain Walker missed two last-gasp chances and Nisbett had a last-minute chance to snatch victory for Halesowen but the stalemate was preserved as goalkeeper Hutchings claimed the ball in a one-on-one.

Halesowen Town: Evans; Loney, Caines, Folkes, Kelly, McGrath, Bruce, Saunders, Jones, Nisbett, Chilton. Unused Subs: Mason, Westwood, Gueyes, Borrey.

Poole Town: Hutchings; Clarke, Spetch, Daysh, Walker, Howes, Gill (Herbert 64), Hubbard, Jeffes (Joyce 68), Preston, Cann (Smith 88). Subs: Richardson, Brookes.

Referee: S. Postin (Coventry)

Roynon returns to take the helm at Heathens

Adam Roynon is unveiled as Dudley Heathens captain.

Picture: Jonathan Hipkiss

Dudley Heathens have signed Adam Roynon as their number one and skipper for the 2012 speedway season.

The 23-year-old Cumbrian was unveiled to a lavish ovation at a fans' talk-in at Cradley Heath Liberal Club last night, writes Tim Hamblin.

Roynon, whose time last year with the Heathens was blighted by injury but who helped them to the National Fours title, said: "I'm so proud to be back."

"To be skipper and number one – words cannot say how I feel."

"I just want to make everyone proud and bring some silverware back, like we did this year."

Roynon quickly became a fans' favourite during his spell at 'Monmore Wood' and was pleased to accept the club's offer of the captaincy.

Chairman Nigel Pearson said: "Adam is a great character and what he deserves above all else is a clear run free of injuries."

"If he goes through the season without any problems, I would expect him to add a point to his starting figure and be right at the top of the National League averages."

"He was only able to ride a handful of matches for us last season, but he soon developed a great affection for the club and the fans. We're delighted to have him back."

Tom Bulteel who scored a hat-trick against Solihull

OLD HALESONIANS HOCKEY CLUB

OHHC 1st XI 10 Solihull Blossomfield 1

Old Halesonians Hockey 1st XI thrashed bottom of the league Solihull Blossomfield 10-1, including a hat-trick from Tom Bulteel.

It was Bulteel who opened the scoring early on and it was soon clear the home side were going to dominate. Hales' second goal soon came, when Paul Harrold found Captain Doug Houghton who powered the ball into the goal.

Substitute Graham Knight then put his name on the score sheet, just seconds after entering the game. Solihull had very little in the way of attack, and struggled to get out of their own half. Old Hales were able to make it 4-0 before half time, when Bulteel grabbed his second.

Bulteel completed his hat-trick just after the restart, when he capitalised on some sloppy Solihull defending. Bulteel easily beat the Solihull GK one-on-one, to make it 5-0. Mark Curzon got a goal from a deflection, before Josh Randhawa made it 7-0. Hales kept the ball well and pounced on mistakes by the visiting side. Harry Hughes was able to convert a penalty from 7 yards to give Hales a 8-0 lead. Knight got his second of the game to make it 9 with 10 minutes left. A lapse in concentration from Hales allowed Solihull to steal a consolation goal. Captain Houghton was able to make it double figures for Old Halesonians, as he sealed his brace.

OHHC 3rd XI 10 West Bromwich 0

Old Halesonians 3rd XI continued the scoring trend when they got off to the perfect start as they broke the deadlock in the opening minute as Damian Shackleton scored from a penalty corner. After then there was no going back as 'The Revolution' 3rd XI attacked constantly, trying out their new 3-4-3 formation.

Shackleton was able to grab two more to ensure his hat-trick, whilst in the goal feed Adam Hill was able to grab three of his own. Charles Palmer had an impressive game, as he was full of energy, never greedy and even bagged himself a brace. Matt Harrold and Steve Butler also made the score sheet as Hales made it 10-0. In the final moment Charlton scored which got the biggest cheer from the crowd only to be disallowed for back stick.

Harborne 0 OHHC 4th XI 3

In their final game before the winter break, Old Halesonians 4th XI dominated away at Harborne as they got three points following a 3-0 victory. An impressive first time reverse stick shot from Jim Gurmin set Hales on their way to victory, as he made it 1-0 to the visitors early on. John Mellor was able to make it 2-0 to Hales before the break. In the second half, Hales continued to control possession, and Mark O'Connell was able to make it 3-0 for the 4th XI before the full time whistle.

Halas ladies have a gr-eight run of victories

Halas Ladies 8 B-ham Medics 0

For the second week running, Halas Ladies recorded an 8-0 win, this time against Birmingham Medics in the Birmingham County Women's League. The first half was a much closer affair with the teams separated by only one goal, which came from a 40-yard trademark shot from Katie Monk. But the second half was a totally different game with Halas taking advantage of the slope and scoring three goals in the first four minutes of the half through Gemma College (2) and Sam Whittaker. Further goals came from College who got a hat-trick, Tash Berry (2) and Lydia Bradley.

Girls League

Halas Hawks 4 Kewford Eagles 2

Halas U13s girls put in their most clinical performance of the season in this cup game against Kewford. They led one nil at half time after a cross from Elizabeth Thomas was turned into her own net by a defender. The visitors equalised soon after the break but an excellent cross by Sophie Miller was turned in by Amy Plimmer, who grabbed her second shortly after. Amy Sargent then scored the team's fourth before Kewford, who always looked dangerous on the break, pulled one back through a penalty to make the score 4-2.

Halas Hawks 1 Withymoor 0

The U15s girls had a hard fought game against Withymoor which was decided by a single goal by Laura Smith. A great defensive display saw Halas hold on to the win with some important tackles made by Shelby Jones.

Boys League

Phoenix Youth 2 Halas Hawks East 1

The U9s East were gifted an own goal by Phoenix Youth but they were unable to take advantage and lost 2-1.

Kewford Eagles South 2 Halas Hawks West 1

The U9s West took the lead against Kewford South through Jayke Adams, but they struggled to find any rhythm and Kewford equalised and then found a winner from an excellent free kick in the dying seconds of the match. Man of the match went to George Priest.

Trysull Tigers 1 Halas Hawks East 2

The U10s East travelled to Trysull and got another good win. Halas didn't start well and Trysull took a deserved lead with a goal from a corner, but Halas got better as the game went on and Oliver Miller equalised before half time from a Trysull goal kick which he fired back in from long range. Charlie Greening scored the winner for Halas direct from a free kick. Man of the match went to Tom Baker and Josh Yorke, who stood in as a goalkeeper.

Kewford Eagles 4 Halas Hawks 3

The U12s played without their recognised goalkeeper against Kewford Eagles and lost 4-3 with their goals coming from Jonty Round, Nick Bennett and Mohammed Mohamed.

Halas Hawks 6

Thimblemill Rec Vipers 1 U14s

The U14s put in a strong first half performance which saw them race into a three goal lead with goals from Jack Bagley, Jack Guest and Liam Holmes. Thimblemill hit back with a goal in the second half, until Halas imposed their strength with goals from Adam Higginson and a brace from Michael Moreton, to make it a 6-1 final score. Man of the match was Tom Bagley for a great midfield performance.

Sedgley Scorpions 0 Halas 3

The U17s started slowly but defensively strong against a determined Sedgley side. A super strike from Ben Hughes broke the deadlock in the first half with both teams only creating half chances. The second half saw Halas step up a gear and go 2-0 up through a Jay Harper header. A penalty 10 mins from the end by Mitch Wells sealed a 3-0 win.

Halas 2 Callowbrook Swifts 1

The U18s took on Callowbrook from the Central Warwick League in the Sunday Youth Challenge Cup and in a very competitive game Halas continued their good form and finished 2-1 winners, goals coming from Ryan Howard and Marc Perry.
